THE ILITCHES AND THE COMMUNITY

When it comes to the diverse needs of the metro Detroit residents and their communities, the words "sincere" and "compassionate" best describe the Ilitch family's response. Their personal and financial commitment to help others covers a wide spectrum of areas including amateur sports, hunger, the homeless, the arts, and people with disabilities.

From the opening of the first Little Caesars Pizza restaurant in Garden City, Michigan in 1959, they established a philosophy of giving back to the community through support of grass roots programs and amateur sports sponsorships.

When the Ilitch family purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992, a firm commitment to further strengthen ties with Detroit area residents was born. The first step taken to make this commitment a reality was the establishment of a special section in the ballpark reserved for community groups to catch the Tigers on the prowl.

Appropriately named, the "Community Corner" is an 800-seat section in Kaline's Corner in rightfield, co-sponsored with Health Alliance Plan (HAP) of Michigan. More than 64,000 Tiger fans visit the corner each season.

Providing the opportunity for a variety of people and organizations to attend games at Michigan and Trumbull and injecting some Tiger spirit into baseball fans is important to the ballclub. One regular season game is designated each year as the Michigan Recreation and Parks Sandlot Benefit Game. Amateur baseballers from Michigan, Ohio, and the Ontario region receive 25,000 to check out the action.

In 1993 the Tigers organization launched its first-ever coat and food drive, which will enter its second successful campaign this season. Along with the players' wives, the Tigers collected more than 1,000 coats for the Salvation Army and some 3,000 pounds of food for the Gleaners Community Food Bank which feeds Southeastern Michigan's six-county area.

Another program allows future stars the chance to learn from their Tiger favorites through various baseball clinics sponsored by the team. Youngsters participate four times per season in actual on-field tutoring sessions with Tiger players, learning the fundamentals of America's favorite pastime.

Sparky Anderson, his coaching staff and players also offer a series of clinics on coaching and the winning attitude to the Michigan High School Athletic Association throughout the year. In addition to the clinics, Tiger coaches and players make numerous appearances at local schools and hospitals each year.

Tiger players support the commitment shown by the organization with their involvement in such programs as the Boys and Girls Clubs of Michigan, Foster Kids, Diabetes Projects, ALS and Caring Athletes Team for Children's and Henry Ford Hospitals (CATCH), a program founded by Tiger skipper Sparky Anderson.

Community outreach has grown since the Ilitches bought the major league franchise and it will continue to grow through future programs like Powerhitter, a teaching aid aimed at middle schools which uses baseball terminology to help educate students; Kindervision, a program designed to register, fingerprint, photograph and educate children on the dangers of dealing with strangers; and an annual charity golf outing.

It's a whole new ballgame at the corner of Michigan and Trumbull, and for the metropolitan Detroit community. Under the ownership of Mike and Marian Ilitch, the Detroit Tigers are committed to strong community pride and to making the ballpark an exciting place for families to enjoy the game.

MICHAEL ILITCH

Owner, Chairman of the Board

When Michael Ilitch purchased the Detroit Tigers, it was the fulfillment of a lifelong dream. For the Detroit area, it meant a whole new ballgame at the corner of Michigan and Trumbull.

The Tigers enjoyed an exciting 1993 season and another fun-filled season is in store for 1994.

"My family and I have been thrilled with our first year of ownership," Ilitch said, looking back on the Tigers 1993 campaign. "With the changes we've made both at the ballpark and within the organization, we are dedicated to making the Tigers a winner."

"The success of the Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Drive and the Detroit Rockers is proof that Detroit sports teams can be victorious," Ilitch continued. "The Detroit Tigers will be no different than any of our other sports teams."

Mr. Ilitch is a sports fan who enjoys the competitive aspects of team ownership. He understands the importance of winning and looks forward to building teams that will bring the Stanley Cup and the World Series Championship to Detroit sports fans.

Detroit is a great baseball town, with a winning tradition and I am committed to doing what it takes to add to that tradition."

Mr. Ilitch recalls growing up in Detroit in an era when the Tigers were magic and talk of the team, the personalities of the players, and last night's score were central to every dinner-time conversation. He hopes to restore some of that magic.

His love for the Tigers came at an early age, and he turned a boy's love for the game into a professional baseball career. After playing ball at Cooley High School and in the Marines, he signed a minor league contract with the Tigers in 1952 for $3,000.

He hoped that his .340 batting average would give him a shot at the major leagues, but his goal went unrealized. He played in the Tiger system through 1954, when a knee injury ended his career.

In 1959, he and his wife, Marian, opened a pizza restaurant in Garden City called Little Caesars Pizza.

This modest enterprise was the foundation for what has become one of Detroit's great success stories. It is the world's largest carry-out pizza chain with more than 4,600 restaurants in the United States, Canada, England, Puerto Rico and the Czech and Slovak Republics.

Over the last five years, Little Caesars has tripled its systemwide sales and in 1993 projected sales of more than $2.3 billion.

In 1992, Nation's Restaurant News ranked Little Caesars first in U.S. systemwide sales growth and first in growth of U.S. units over all pizza chains. The company posted 25 percent increases in both categories.

The success of Little Caesars has opened many doors for Mr. Ilitch. It was this success that made it possible for him to purchase the Detroit Red Wings on June 22, 1982. Through the tireless efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Ilitch, their family and staff, the Red Wings have become a profitable and competitive enterprise. In 1992, Financial World magazine reported that the Red Wings were the most valuable franchise in the National Hockey League.

Mr. Ilitch also owns the Detroit Drive arena football team, which he purchased in 1988. In the five years of his ownership, the team has won four Arena Football League championships.

In 1993, Mr. and Mrs. Ilitch added the Detroit Rockers of the National Professional Soccer League (NPSL) to their impressive sports roster. The Rockers are a high-powered franchise and were crowned league champs during the 1991-92 campaign.

To complement his sports/entertainment holdings, in 1982 he purchased Olympia Arenas, Inc. (OAI), the management company for Joe Louis Arena (the Red Wings' home ice), Cobo Arena in Detroit, and the Glens Falls Arena in New York. The nationally known historic Fox Theatre (owned and operated by Mr. Ilitch) in downtown Detroit was added in 1988, and beginning with the 1992 concert season, OAI became the management company for the Meadow Brook Music Festival — an outdoor entertainment center — at Oakland University in Rochester Hills, MI.

Mr. Ilitch is highly respected as a business and community leader, and he has been the recipient of many honors. Most recently the Michigan Department of Public Health honored him with its 1993 Distinguished Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award for promoting and demonstrating exemplary performance in advancing principles of human rights, equality and positive social change.

In addition, he was recognized as an outstanding business leader by the Junior Achievement of Southeast Michigan Hall of Fame in 1993.

In 1992, Nation's Restaurant News' honored Mr. Ilitch with its Golden Chain Award for outstanding leadership and significant contributions to the food service industry and, in 1991, he received the Humanitarian Award presented by Variety — The Children's Charity — for efforts toward making the world a better place.

The secret of his success? He loves his work. At the time he announced his purchase of the Tigers, he said, "You can do a lot on love. When you love something, it's not work."

MR. PRESIDENT

Michael Ilitch assumed the title of club President when he and his wife, Marian, purchased the Tigers on August 26, 1992. He is the 13th Tiger President since the ballclub entered the American League as a charter member in 1901.

MARIAN ILITCH

Owner, Secretary-Treasurer

As co-owner and secretary/treasurer for all Ilitch-owned companies, Marian Ilitch oversees all finances, investments and the application of financial systems for Little Caesar Enterprises, Inc., Blue Line Distributing, Inc., the Detroit Tigers, Inc., the Detroit Red Wings, Inc., the Detroit Drive, the Detroit Rockers, Olympia Arenas, Inc., and the Fox Theatre.

She has worked side-by-side with her husband, Mike, since they opened their first Little Caesars Pizza Restaurant in 1959, and together they have parlayed that first restaurant into an international chain with more than 4,600 restaurants.

She is well-known as a person who is detail-driven, highly organized, a perfectionist, and extremely energetic.

As testimony to her business acumen, she was invited by President Bill Clinton in December 1993 to attend a special CEO luncheon meeting at The White House to discuss important issues facing the nation today. She was the only woman invited to attend that meeting, and took the opportunity to address the needs of the city of Detroit and the President's empowerment zone concept.

In 1993, Working Woman magazine ranked Mrs. Ilitch in the number two spot of the "Top 50 Women Business Owners" in the country. And, she was named by USA Today in 1991 as one of the most powerful executives in the NHL, illustrating that she has been a driving force behind the financial success of all the Ilitch-owned companies.

As the co-founder of a family business that has grown into a multi-billion dollar a year enterprise, Mrs. Ilitch has helped to establish and maintain the family culture of all the companies. With her common sense approach to business and her belief in keeping business in small and manageable portions, she has helped create a corporate culture that maintains a small company's characteristics and a family atmosphere throughout its growth.

Though Mrs. Ilitch dreams of building Little Caesars restaurants in every corner of the globe, she always has felt that it was more important to be the best rather than to be the biggest.

When the Ilitch family purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992, it added the ballclub to its impressive sports holdings of the Detroit Red Wings and the Detroit Drive (they purchased the Rockers in 1993). Recently, the Wings were named as the most valuable franchise in the National Hockey League, the Drive (arena football) has been a top performer in its league for the last five years, and the Rockers (indoor soccer) are currently on top of the national division.

In addition, the Fox Theatre was named as the top-grossing theatre of its size for both 1992 (Amusement Business magazine) and 1989 (Performance magazine).

While she and Mr. Ilitch were cultivating their businesses, Mrs. Ilitch worked full-time and raised seven children at the same time — which attests not only to her boundless energy, but to her organizational skills as well.

Throughout the years she also has taken an active part in community service. She was co-chairman for the Easter Seal Telethon in 1985 and 1986, and has helped raise funds for Detroit's Children Hospital.

She also has set up scholarships at several Detroit-area colleges to encourage educational opportunities for mothers who work outside the home.

Mrs. Ilitch received the Pacesetter Award from the Roundtable for Women in Foodservice in 1988 for outstanding contributions to the foodservice industry.

She and Mr. Ilitch also were named Michiganians of the Year in 1989, received the 1992 Goodfellows of the Year Award in recognition of outstanding dedication, commitment and contribution to the Detroit community, and in 1993 were honored with the Richard C. Van Dusen Summit Award presented by the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce for exceptional community achievements.

HOW THEY BECAME TIGERS

Research reveals that the nickname "Tigers" first was applied to the Detroit baseball club in 1895.

Baseball historians long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896, although George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the move which resulted in the nickname when he put his players in black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

Later evidence makes it appear that an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press actually originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. In its early years, the team was simply called "Detroit," "the Detroiters," sometimes the "Wolverines" (a name more familiarly associated with the University of Michigan) and at times the "Creams."

The "Creams" broke into print in 1894, the year Detroit entered the Western league under the ownership of G.A. Van Derbeck, a transient from Los Angeles. A writer of the time derisively referred to his aggregation as "what is purported to be the cream of California baseball players" — which may account for the name.

Then on April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read: "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed: "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called them the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, the Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895 careful search of the files disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had used "Tigers."

Thus it seems that the Detroit Free Press must get credit for originating the Tiger nickname in 1895 — unless someone has other new evidence to the contrary.

ATANAS ILITCH

Vice President

As the vice president of Olympia Arenas, Inc., Atanas Ilitch oversees operations for all Ilitch family sports and entertainment properties including the Detroit Red Wings, the Detroit Tigers, the Detroit Drive, the Detroit Rockers, The Fox Theatre, Joe Louis Arena, Cobo Arena, and Meadow Brook Music Festival.

Ilitch has vast experience in the entertainment industry, and has been a valuable consultant to all projects the Ilitch family has undertaken.

He spearheaded the project to bring The Second City—Detroit to the downtown Theatre District, making Detroit the third metropolis to host this comedy institution. Comedy legends like Bill Murray, Dan Ackroyd, John Candy, and Mike Myers all got their starts at The Second City. Ilitch serves as executive producer for The Second City—Detroit.

He also has produced a national tour of the Broadway musical "Annie," and has been involved in a variety of creative endeavors for the organization.

In addition to his corporate responsibilities, Ilitch has written and released two albums in the music industry, and is currently on a national college tour to promote his new album, "Conscience of the City."

Ilitch earned his bachelor of arts in Theatre and Drama with honors at the University of Michigan, and studied at both the American Conservatory Theatre in San Francisco and the University of Southern California.

CHRISTOPHER ILITCH

Vice President

Christopher Ilitch is a group vice president at Little Caesar Enterprises, Inc.

He is responsible for overseeing the company's administrative departments, as well as marketing, communications, and research & development.

Most recently, he was the vice president of company development for the pizza chain, where he oversaw development for Little Caesars domestically and internationally, and spearheaded the company's international development. Since 1991, company restaurant development has increased 63 percent under his guidance.

Ilitch is a major force in the strategic planning for the company's future growth, and he assists in the chain's development of non-traditional sites. In addition, he coordinates a variety of special projects, and serves on the executive committee for the world's largest carry-out pizza and spaghetti chain.

Ilitch has worked in many areas of the pizza company over the years to gain first-hand knowledge and experience in all areas of operation for Little Caesars. Most recently, he spent several years as vice president of operations for the Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Fort Wayne markets, where he oversaw the operation of more than 160 restaurants.

He is also involved in the sports and entertainment entities owned by the Ilitch family, and consults on many issues for these venues.

Ilitch graduated from the University of Michigan in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

GERALD PASTERNAK

Chief Financial Officer

Jerry Pasternak brings a background of high finance and sports administration to his position of Chief Financial Officer of the Detroit Tigers.

Pasternak was instrumental in constructing the contract of purchase of the Tigers for Mike and Marian Ilitch during the summer of 1992. In his position, Pasternak oversees all of the major financial and business activities of the Tigers.

Pasternak also serves as Vice President of Accounting for Little Caesar Enterprises, Inc., where he has been employed since 1985. Prior to that, he was Director of Finance for Olympia Arenas, Inc., beginning in April, 1981.

Pasternak was Vice President of Finance for Michigan Dino's Pizza, Inc. from 1979 to 1981, and was with Plante & Moran accounting firm as an Associate Accountant from 1974 through 1979.

A Detroit native, Pasternak attended University of Detroit High School. He received a degree in accounting from Wayne State University in 1970. He resides in Troy, MI.

JOE KLEIN

Senior Director, General Manager

Joe Klein has brought a wealth of baseball experience to his position as general manager of the Detroit Tigers. Klein has served in almost every baseball capacity, giving him an insight into all aspects of the game.

Klein has served as a major league general manager for both Texas and Cleveland. Prior to his promotion to the Tiger position, Klein served as Tiger senior director of scouting. He has a reputation for being one of the finest scouts in the game.

Klein began his career in professional baseball in 1961, when he was signed by the Washington Senators. When his seven-year minor league career as a first baseman was ended by a shoulder injury, Klein spent five seasons managing in the Washington Senators/Texas Rangers organization, 1969-74. In 1975, Klein moved to the Rangers' front office, being appointed to the post of assistant to the farm director and director of scouting. In 1980, he was named director of player development and procurement.

In 1982, Klein climbed another rung on the ladder to vice-president — baseball operations, assuming the traditional responsibilities of the general manager. He held that position with the Rangers for two seasons before becoming vice-president and general manager of the Cleveland Indians prior to the 1984 season.

Klein served the Indians as general manager for four years through the 1987 campaign, then joined the Tigers as a major league scout and amateur cross-checker in both 1988 and 1989.

In 1990, the Kansas City Royals came calling, hiring Klein as vice-president — director of player personnel. He worked with the Royals for two years in that capacity before returning to the Tigers in his scouting position.

Klein was born August 22, 1942. He and his wife, Cathie, have two sons, Jake and Todd, and reside in Baltimore, MD.

GARY VITTO

Senior Director, Assistant General Manager

Gary Vitto's insight into sports and vibrant approach toward every assignment has made him a vital element in all the Ilitch-owned business operations.

In his role as the Tigers' Assistant General Manager, Vitto brings a zest for baseball and a knack for working with people to get a job done properly regardless of its size.

Vitto has worked in the Ilitch organization since 1977. He has proven himself at every level.

Immediately before joining the Tigers, Vitto served as general manager of the Detroit Drive, the Ilitches' team in the Arena Football League, and won his fourth championship in five seasons.

Vitto also managed the Ilitches' Detroit Caesars to a pair of world titles (1977-78) in the former American Professional Slowpitch Softball League.

In addition to those duties, Vitto has served in advertising and sales roles for Olympia Arenas, Inc., representing both the Detroit Red Wings and the Fox Theatre — all Ilitch-owned entities.

Vitto continues to oversee some of the expanded Tiger advertising program.

Vitto not only is an accomplished sports administrator and marketing expert, but he also is a former Detroit sandlot baseball standout who attended Ferris State University.

He and his wife, Sharon, have been married for 21 years and reside in Shelby Township, MI.

DAN EWALD

Senior Director, Public Relations

Dan Ewald is one of the American League's senior public relations directors with 15 years at the top of the Tiger media operation.

Ewald joined the Tigers September 1, 1978 as assistant director of public relations after a career in the newspaper business. Prior to joining the Tigers, he served two years as sports editor of the Grand Rapids Press. Before that he worked for The Detroit News for seven years where he served as baseball beat writer, covering the Tigers.

In 1979, Ewald was named director of public relations. In his 15 years as director, Ewald has authored a pair of books with manager Sparky Anderson. The first, "Bless You, Boys", was a daily account of the Tigers' 1984 World Championship season. It reached the New York Times best-seller list.

The second work, an account of Anderson's baseball career called "Sparky", was published in 1989.

A graduate of Wayne State University, where he also attended graduate school in American literature, Ewald had early experience with a variety of weekly newspapers.

Born in Detroit on May 3, 1945, Ewald resides in Troy, MI, and is the father of son, Dan, Jr., and daughter, Andrea.

TIGER STADIUM FACTS

The evolution of Tiger Stadium continued under the new ownership of Michael and Marian Ilitch.

For 1993, an $8 million renovation of Tiger Stadium was completed and featured the facelift of the traditional "corner" at Michigan and Trumbull with the construction of the new, fan-friendly Tiger Plaza.

The Tiger Plaza occupies the old employee parking lot, an area previously bound by the ticket office, Trumbull Avenue ticket booths, and Michigan Avenue wall.

Also included in the 1993 renovation were the installation of a color video scoreboard, an improved sound system and the enhancement of the Tiger Den seating area.

Previous improvements to Tiger Stadium began in 1977 and were completed in 1983, including installation of a $500,000 multi-vapor field lighting system, installation of modern, plastic seating, a $2 million electronic scoreboard, new radio and television broadcast facilities, and a complete external facelift.

The 1977 reconstruction of a $600,000 press box replaced the open-air press area that burned in a February 1, 1977 electrical fire.

Seating capacity (subject to final adjustments) is projected at 52,416 with 11,732 box seats, 23,611 reserved, 6,269 reserved grandstand, and 10,804 bleachers.

Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born with Detroit as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938, and Tiger Stadium on January 1, 1961.

Tiger Stadium is owned by the City of Detroit, which purchased the plant from then-owner John E. Fetzer for $1.00 in November, 1977. The City of Detroit then leased the stadium back to the Tigers for 30 years, with a 30-year renewal option.

George Lee Anderson Manager

Nickname: Sparky. Born: Bridgewater, SD 2-22-34 (60) 5-9 170 B-R T-R. (Infielder). Married: Carol Valle. Children: George Jr., Shirlee Trece, Albert William. Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA.

Sparky Anderson's march toward the top of the managerial record charts took some giant steps in 1993.

And with 79 wins this year, Sparky will become baseball's 3rd winningest manager in major league history.

On April 15, 1993, Detroit's victory over Oakland made Sparky just the 7th manager in history to accumulate 2,000 wins. He later passed Leo Durocher and Walter Alton and enters 1994 in 5th place with 2,081. Joe McCarthy is 4th with 2,126 and Bucky Harris is 3rd with 2,159.

Each season becomes a record-making one for Sparky. It was on Sept. 27, 1992 that Sparky became the winningest manager in Tiger franchise history. He enters 1994 with the Tiger franchise record of 1,218 victories. He holds the Cincinnati franchise record of 863. He is the only manager in history to lead 2 franchises in all-time victories.

Sparky has a 24-year major league record of 2081-1688 (.552). His overall winning percentage is 10th highest of 20th century managers with at least 10 years experience.

Sparky Anderson, however, is a lot more than baseball numbers and statistics. He's an animated ambassador of baseball, spreading the good word of the game wherever he goes.

Sparky is the dean of the American League with only Los Angeles' Tommy Lasorda with more continuous service among major league managers.

Hired on June 12, 1979, Sparky was in uniform two games later. The Tigers matured with his guidance, rising from 5th place in 1980, his first full season at the helm, to just missing post-season action in 1981.

Sparky molded his team and saw the fruits of his labor take shape with a 2nd place finish in 1983. Then the Tigers astounded the baseball world with a season which may never be seen again. The 1984 Tigers exploded to a club-record 104 victories then swept Kansas City en route to the World Series. Once there, San Diego proved no match, falling in five games.

Sparky was honored as American League Manager of the Year and took his place in baseball history. No other manager can boast 100-win seasons in each league; playoff sweeps in each league; a World Series title in each league.

One of Sparky's proudest seasons was 1987. Picked by many to finish 5th, the Tigers battled all year to take the East Division title. Again Sparky was named Manager of the Year. Picked by many to finish 5th in 1988, the Tigers battled to within one game of repeating as East Division Champions.

The Tigers knew what they were getting when Sparky joined the team. His reputation and accomplishments with Cincinnati were well documented. The Reds were one of baseball's most formidable teams in his command, 1970-1978. His record (863-586, .596) was the best in the National League during that time.

Sparky's Reds won five West Division titles, four pennants and a pair of World Series. Cincinnati became only the 3rd National League team and the first in 54 years to win back-to-back World Series in 1975-76.

He has been NL Manager of the Year twice (1972 and 1975) and perennially involved with the All-Star Game. Sparky has managed the NL four times and the AL once.

Born February 22, 1934 at Bridgewater, SD, Sparky grew up in California. He played in the minor leagues for six seasons as an infielder.

In 1959 Sparky played for the Philadelphia Phillies, his only season in the major leagues. However, upon returning to the minors he honed his managerial abilities and was named to his first assignment in 1964 at Toronto.

SPARKY'S TIGER TIES

Sparky Anderson's first game at Detroit didn't come in 1979 when he was named manager of the Tigers. It came almost 30 years earlier when he and Coach Billy Consolo were members of the 1951 Crenshaw Post of Los Angeles which played for a national championship in American Legion ball at Briggs Stadium.

Sparky also managed an All-Star Game, on the National League side, at Tiger Stadium in 1971. The American League won that game, 6-4.

Charlie Dressen is the man Sparky credits for having the greatest influence on him in becoming one of baseball's most successful managers. Dressen managed the Tigers 1963- 1966.

FIVE-100 GAME WINNERS

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season -- and two of them failed to win pennants.

Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished 2 1/2 games behind the Red Sox and Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) was eight lengths behind the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk.

Two of the five clubs won the World Series. Under Sparky Anderson, the 1984 Tigers set a club record of 104 regular season wins. The Tigers (104-58) went on to beat San Diego in the World Series. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way with a seven-game victory over the Cardinals for the World Championship.

The 1934 Bengals (101-53), managed by Mickey Cochrane, won a pennant, but lost the World Series to the Cardinals.

TIGERS LEAD IN TRIPLE PLAYS

Skeeter Barnes' heroics on July 3, 1992 helped to continue an historic Tiger reign in triple plays. His work gave the Tigers their 32nd, more than any team in Major League Baseball history.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals are tied for the National League lead with 30.

The Tigers of 1908 made two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start their historic run of three-ply killings. The 1911 Tigers posted three triple plays.

THANKS A MILLION

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 29 seasons, the lone American League club to do so. Only St. Louis (31 years) and the Dodgers (49 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 36 years in L.A.

GREAT TIGER NICKNAMES

The Tigers have had a few players with famous and unusual monikers over the years. There were the famous (Schoolboy Rowe), the obscure (Pepper Peploski) and many in between. For instance, Soldier Boy Murphy and Sailor Stroud suited up for Detroit, as have Piano Legs Hickman, Baby Doll Jacobson, and the Wilson trio, Mut, Icehouse, and Squanto.

Other nicknames from the all-time Tiger roster include Skeeter (Barnes), Gator (Brown), Mark "The Bird" Fidrych, Hooks (Dauss), Snooks (Dowd), Razor (Ledbetter), Rip (Radcliffe), Hack (Simmons), Rocky (Colavito), Muddy (Ruel), Stubby (Overmire), Tubby (Spencer), Baldy (Louden) and Slim (Love). Perhaps the best of all belonged to John Francis Gammon, better known as Phenomenal Smith.

TIGERS UNDER THE LIGHTS

The first night game the Tigers ever played was June 20, 1939, when they blanked the Athletics, 5-0, at Philadelphia — one of three cities (along with Cleveland and Chicago) to launch night play in the American League that year.

The Tigers' first night game under the lights at Tiger Stadium was June 15, 1948, when they again defeated the A's, 4-1. The Tigers, last of the American League's then-eight teams to install lights, scheduled only seven night games that year but soon doubled the number, then proceeded to the current level of 50-55 at home per season.

THREE YEARS IN A ROW

The string was broken, but Cecil Fielder made a great run. Cecil posted another solid season with 117 RBI in 1993. However, for the first time since joining the Tigers, Cecil did not lead the majors or the American League. Cecil (1990-91-92) and Babe Ruth (1919-20-21) are the only players in history to lead the majors in RBI for 3 straight seasons.

Only 5 players in history have led their league for 3 straight seasons.

No player has led his league in RBI for 4 consecutive seasons. Those players leading their league 3 straight seasons:

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Travis Fryman drilled his name into the history books on July 28, 1993 against the Yankees at Tiger Stadium.

Fryman hit for the cycle — single, double, triple, homer — to become just the 8th Tiger in history to turn the trick. He also added a second double in his last at bat to finish the game 5/5 with 2 runs and 4 RBI.

Fryman's effort was Detroit's first since Sept 7, 1950 when Hoot Evers did it against Cleveland. In all, 11 players have hit for the cycle at Detroit — 6 by the Tigers and 5 by opponents.

Besides Fryman, Mark Grace of the Cubs (May 9) and Jay Buhner of the Mariners (June 23) also hit the cycle in 1993. Since 1900, major league batters have hit for the cycle 187 times — 95 in the American League and 92 in the National.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record for the most times hitting for the cycle with the third of his career at Navin Field July 26, 1928. The Cubs' Babe Herman tied the record in 1933. Eric Davis hit for the cycle while playing for Cincinnati against San Diego on June 2, 1989.

It was the game that became a legend. Bottom of the ninth. The Brooklyn Dodgers were hanging on to a 4-2 lead with two men on. And Ralph Branca needed to choose each pitch carefully to win the 1951 National League Pennant. Inside fastball. Wrong choice. Bobby Thomson sent the ball into the cheap seats, and the Giants went home the National League Champions.

We at NBD bring you

this story as a reminder that life is full of choices, not the smallest of which is deciding on a bank. Now, more than ever, you need a strong bank that can help you make the right decisions. A bank like NBD. For almost 60 years, we've been helping people throughout the Midwest make the decisions that are best for them. And we would like to do the same for you.

The right bank can make a difference.®

CLEARING THE ROOF

Since Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines in 1938, 25 home runs have been hit over the roof and out of the stadium. Twenty-two have gone over the rightfield roof and three over the more-distant leftfield roof.

On Aug 25, 1990, Cecil Fielder became the first Tiger to clear the leftfield roof with his 4th inning blast off Oakland ace Dave Stewart. Fielder's was the first home run over the leftfield roof in 22 years, since Washington's Frank Howard on May 18, 1968. Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew hit the first of the three leftfield shots on Aug 3, 1962.

Fans recall a number of long home runs hit out of the stadium before it was remodeled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was the 700th home run of Babe Ruth's career on July 13, 1934—a blow which cleared the rightfield wall and rolled several hundred feet down a street leading to the stadium. Even longer was a Ruthian blast of June 8, 1926 which also cleared the wall and came to rest nearly two blocks down Plum Street. The ball was retrieved some 800-850 feet from home plate by a youngster who received a $20 bill (borrowed from a teammate) for returning it to the Bambino.

Right now, all over the world, IBM is involved with more sports than you can shake a club at. Or a bat. Or a racquet.

That's because from recording RBIs, to tracking aces, to helping deserving teens attend major league showdowns, IBM's people and technology are participating in sports events that benefit athletes and fans alike.

Which is why, if you see anything computer-oriented at your favorite tournament, game or match, chances are it'll be sporting three familiar letters:

There's something magical that happens when baseball meets radio. Other sports just don't have the same feel on the air. When you listen to a baseball game on the radio, you can hear the guy selling peanuts. You can feel the tension as the pitcher gets in his wind-up. When Cecil hits one out of the park, it's almost like being there. You can see it all in your mind. Feel the magic, with Rick and Bob this season, only on WJR.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

IMPORTANT FREE AGENCY DATES:

- December 7 — Free Agent's former club must offer Salary Arbitration or lose the right to negotiate with said Free Agent until succeeding May 1.
- December 19 — Free Agent must decide whether to accept or refuse former club's offer of binding Salary Arbitration.
- January 8 — Last day that former club may negotiate with Free Agent, providing that said Free Agent has refused club's offer of binding Salary Arbitration, until succeeding May 1.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet in June for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . The meeting is conducted by conference phone . . . Selection of free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting or player enters 4-year college).

Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed junior year or become 21 years of age.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4-1/2 or 5 innings) (Rule 4.10).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game any time after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED GAME in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in the American League Regulation 4.12. Any LEGAL game called due to weather with the score TIED is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

TRADING REGULATIONS: Major League waivers required only between August 1 and the first day after the conclusion of the season for interleague trades and trades within own league.

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; 2) he is not the winning pitcher; and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or c) he pitched effectively for at least three innings.

PLAYER LIMITS: 25 players from opening day through August 31 . . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

DISABLED LISTS: 15-Day Disabled List — no limit on number of players placed on this list; 60-Day Emergency Disabled List — may be used only when club is at maximum of 40 players. No limit on number of players placed on this list.

DEFINITION OF A NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Two-night double-headers shall be included in double-header statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE: All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.

HOW TO FIGURE — BATTING AVG: Divide the number of hits by number of times-at-bat . . .

ERA: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and divide by number of innings pitched . . .

FIELDING: Divide the number of errorless chances by number of total chances (assists, putouts and errors) . . .

SLUGGING: Divide the number of total bases (one base for single, two for double, etc.) by times-at-bat . . . MAGIC NUMBER: Determine number of games to be played, add one, then subtract number of games ahead in loss column of second place team.

SPRING TRAINING FACTS SINCE 1966

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland since 1934, first at Henley Field and since 1966 at Marchant Stadium, a mile north. The all-concrete grandstand at Marchant Stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and in 1972 the first night game was played there under a new $160,000 set of lights.

Adjacent of the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers' minor-league training site since 1953. A plush, three-story, fireproof dormitory featuring air-conditioning, carpeted rooms and lounges on each floor, was added to the Tigertown complex in 1971. It houses 200 minor league players and officials.

For 1993 a new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed.

The Marchant Stadium grandstand seats 7,027, including 650 box seats. The Tigers' record at Marchant Stadium is 205-178-5 and 1,592,348 fans have paid to see Grapefruit League games since it opened.
